Brethren, I once again find my self writing this trestle board article and it seems to me this is quite bitter sweet as it will be my last article as master of Washington Lodge. Bitter in the event that this year went by so fast, and I find myself looking back and wondering what did I, as the Master of Washington Lodge, accomplish during the past 10 Months of my term, and with only 2 months left can I still make a difference? But it is also sweet in the aspect of turning over the position to another eager master, and being able to attend in the next few months, on the sideline, helping and supporting the lodge from a position of experience. As I look back on the past months I had the extreme pleasure to preside as master. I am very grateful to all of the members and officers for the confidence and the trust they had all put in me the last year. I am very proud of the officers I had pleasure to work with this year in terms of there integrity and competence in their respective positions. All of you did great degree work, and took your position very serious. It was an honor. We initiated, passed and raised many new members, but the most important is the fostered friendships I have seen precipitate during our social hours and times of refreshment. So I write this message to all as my final note, please don't lose sight of the fun, friendship and socialization that should always be present as you get involved with scheduling, degrees, planning, and budgeting for the lodge. Let not all forget why we gather here on the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of the month. It's not to hear a treasure's report or the minutes of the previous meeting, but to see friends and companions. Some of my best friends are Masons. Actually I should say that all of my best friends ARE masons. That is the beauty of masonry. So what did I really accomplish? I will let you all answer that question for yourself. Thanks again and God Bless.

Marcus Vander Leest W.M.

Early in the year I shared with you one of my favorite Bible passages, Luke 8 verse 16.

As the month passed a great majority of you seized opportunities that were presented you, and in the process you made Theodore Roosevelt Lodge a shining example of what Freemasons should look like.

I'm extremely proud of all my brothers, and it has been a humbling experience to represent such great men.

We still have a lot of work and listed below are some important dates.

Many compliments have been received on the historical display in honor of the 150 year anniversary celebration of the Commandery of Knights Templar in Wisconsin. It is gratifying to plan a special display in honor of a significant date or event for a Masonic Organization meeting in Green Bay.

Supplies have been ordered for the special lighting to be installed in the museum above the displays that are located around the outer perimeter of the room.

Several new donations have been received and are being entered into the inventory. Many of these items will be added to the "Have Artifacts, Will Travel" program that is offered to all Masonic Organizations. The program is customized for the organization.

As we near the end of the year, remember donations to the Northeast Wisconsin Library and Museum are tax deductible.

Northeast Wisconsin Masonic Building Board

Greetings to all:

Another year is quickly coming to a close, the weather is turning cold, and a new Northeast Wisconsin Masonic Board is about to be elected.

Election for the N. E. W. Building Board is scheduled for November 16, 2009, at 6:30 PM. Elections of building board offices will follow the board selections. NEW Building bodies have been informed of the election; therefore, if you wish to be elected to the board or have an interest in the election please see your body's secretary.

Remember, any ideas or suggestions about building projects are always welcomed.

Fraternally yours,
N. E. W. Masonic Building Board

Greeting Companions and Sir Knights. Thanks to every one who participated and supported the Grand Commandery's 150th Anniversary celebration. Those of you who did not attend, missed out on some thing special. We have many new Companions, who are anxiously awaiting to be Knighted. To that end, it's Inspection season. With so many to go through the orders, we anticipate some may be Knighted in other Commandies. We need to fully support them, and participate as fully as possible where ever they go. As to the Knightings, dates may change, please be flexible. It is important that we get maximum participation, and make our new Sir Knights feel like important members of Magnanimous Order.
